Program Description and Guiding Principles

English 2201 is an academic course intended for students whose goals include post-secondary academic study. English 2201 emphasizes literary texts and is intended to enable students to be analytical and critical readers and viewers and to give detailed accounts of complex and sophisticated texts. Students are required to examine and evaluate ideas and style in materials studied and in their own work. Students will also be expected to express themselves precisely and to use technology and multimedia applications to solve problems and conduct inquiries. Emphasis will be placed on exposure to and use of a wide variety of styles found in texts from various places and periods, including

- poetry, novels, short prose, plays and myths from different times, cultures and places
- research papers
- film, video, radio, television and live drama
- multi-media texts, databases, CD-ROM reference sources, and news groups
